Scriptures to use for Searching your Soul

Edifying the Body of Christ (Eph. 4.10-16)
Vol. XVI.10

Amo 7:7 Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall [made] by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

How is it with your soul?

The Lord is holy God, and calls us to be a holy people, a holy nation. Look unto Him and be ye holy as is written in Leviticus 20.7.

Again, the Word of God tells us of His great love for us. Oh, why can we not live a life of holiness unto Him, receive His love and live for Him Who calls us to "come unto Me."

And from Jesus Christ, [who is] the faithful witness, [and] the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him [be] glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen (Rev 1.4-6).

Be in the Word of God daily with your heart and abide in Him.

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee (Ps 119.11).

Plumbline: Leviticus 20.6, 7

And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I [am] the LORD your God.

Perhaps there needs to be some soul searching as King David prayed:

Psa 139:23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

Psa 139:24 And see if [there be any] wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Edifying the Body of Christ (Eph. 4.10-16)
Vol. XVI.10

Rom 10:17 So then faith [cometh] by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

If we could open our hearts and lives to the King of kings Who came and paid a ransom for us, and respond to Him with a grateful heart, how glorious would be the experience.

Jesus came that we might have life and have it abundantly in Him, that we might know His joy and His peace, His love for us.

Take time to read the following which was given to the people of God in the New Testament. Be encouraged to walk on in Him, a life of holiness unto Him.

But ye [are] a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

Which in time past [were] not a people, but [are] now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy (I P 2.9, 10).

There is a chorus I heard some years ago that is a call unto us out of the above scripture.

Come and worship, Royal priesthood.

Come and praise Him, Royal nation.

Worship Jesus, our Redeemer.

He is precious, King of glory.

The words in I Peter and in the chorus are in other scriptures. Read them and lift up holy hands and praise the Lord for His mercy and love and grace in your life.

Deu 7:6 For thou [art] an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that [are] upon the face of the earth.

Deu 7:7 The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye [were] the fewest of all people:

Deu 7:8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Psa 119:11 Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.
